

Our Place Exhibition

The exhibition is going well, with regular visitors each day, and several paintings sold. There are many positive comments in the visitors' book, and resident artists each Tuesday have reported that there has been a lot of interest.

The exhibition has been extended to Sunday 6 October. This gives an extension of one week as we were one week later than originally advertised for the Exhibition. The electronic billboard is advertising the Exhibition.

Beautiful Blooms Workshop

Beginners in Flower Drawing with Gill Allen. They had a great time last Saturday (21st) for the start of 'Beautiful Blooms'. A small, friendly and enthusiastic group gathered for a day of drawing flowers using pen, pencil and charcoal. This Saturday they will begin looking at colour and using pastel - a fun time is expected!! A repeat of these workshops may be available before the end of the year. If interested, contact Gill through her fb page 'Gill Allen Artspot'

Christmas Fair

The date for the Christmas Fair is pencilled in by the Council as Friday 22 and Saturday 23 November. That's not far away, so get your brushes going. Put the date in your diary. More details coming soon.
